Recommendation for hygienic coatings from FAKOLITH

FAKOLITH's interior coatings (listed individually below) – when used correctly, properly, and as intended – make an important contribution to basic hygiene in companies that produce, store, or distribute food. They support the targeted implementation of hygiene concepts and reliably prevent microbial contamination on surfaces in hygiene-sensitive areas such as sales and catering areas, canteens, changing rooms, restrooms, and recreation rooms.

- FAKOLITH BIO.FILM.STOP-Products:
